I ARRIVED TO UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL ON 11/19/2023 in the Emergency Room to REMOVE A BATTERY out OF MY STOMACH. while I WAS PLACED ON the FLOOR OF THE E.R. I WAS SHACKLED & HANDCUFFED AT THE FEET while lying in A HOSPITAL BED. The assigned officers were located AT THE FOOT OF MY BED on the phone.

When I was approached by hospital staff to Ascertain the Reason as to why I was in the E.R., I kindly told them that I would like to Refuse treatment and that I will sign all necessary paperwork that would be needed. SHE SAID SHE HAS TO speak with someone and she left. The officer then got off of the phone and placed a pair of gloves on then approached me by bending and looked around suspiciously. The next thing I know this officer is whispering in a soft voice telling me that he will kill me in this hospital. I was confused. In the next moment this same officer starts placing his hands around my neck in a violent manner. He was choking me. As I'm yelling for help he releases his grip on my neck. Now I'm looking for help. By the time I look up he proceeds to choke me again. This time his partner is grabbing him by the arm trying to pry his arms off of me. She's yelling to him what are you doing? Nurse staff quickly respond to help. Immediately I am being restrained as if I was acting out. The next thing I know they are preparing to give me an injection. I later found out that the injection was actually HALDOL. All of these actions were not called for. The whole incident was captured on camera. The Emergency Room has cameras throughout the whole floor that captured this assault.
